

Course Learning Objectives:

At the end of the course, participants will understand the significant changes to the Accessibility, Mechanical and Plumbing volumes of the 2010 Florida Building Code and implement these code requirements in construction projects.