

DRAFT

Florida Building Commission

Window and Garage Door Inspection Workshop

October 12, 2005

Orlando, Florida

Rosen Centre Hotel
9840 International Drive
1-(800)-800-9840

SCOPE

- This Workshop Will Investigate Means for Improving the Enforcement of the Florida Building Code Requirements for Windows and Garage Doors

OBJECTIVES

- To Review Window and Garage Door Performance in Hurricanes
- To Review Current Window Standards and the Enforcement Paradigm
- To Consider Methods for Improving the Enforceability of Building Code Window Performance Standards and Field Installations
- To Consider Window Labels
- To Consider Generic Window Installation Requirements for Water Control
- To Consider Garage Door Labels

1:00 Welcome and Introductions

1:10 Review of Window and Garage Door Performance in Hurricanes

1:30 Review of Current Testing and Labeling Requirements for Windows

1:50 Review of Current Testing and Labeling Requirements for Garage Doors

2:00 Discussion of Window Installation “Water Proofing” and Enforcement

2:30 Discussion of Information Essential to Building Inspectors’ Determining an Installed Window Meets the Design Wind Pressure and How it Would be Provided on a Label

DRAFT

- 3:00 Discussion of Generic Prescriptive Installation Criteria as a Means for Building Inspectors' To Determine Windows are Installed Properly to Prevent Water Intrusion
- 3:30 Discussion of Information Essential to Building Inspectors' Determining and Installed Garage Door Meets the Design Wind Pressure and How It Would Be Provided on a Label
- 3:45 Identify Other Methods to Improve Enforcement of Code Requirements for Window Wind Pressure Performance
- 4:00 Identify Other Methods to Improve Enforcement for Window Installation Water Intrusion Performance
- 4:15 Identify Other Methods to Improve Enforcement of Code Requirements for Garage Door Wind Pressure Performance
- 4:30 Adjourn