

Code Resolution Process

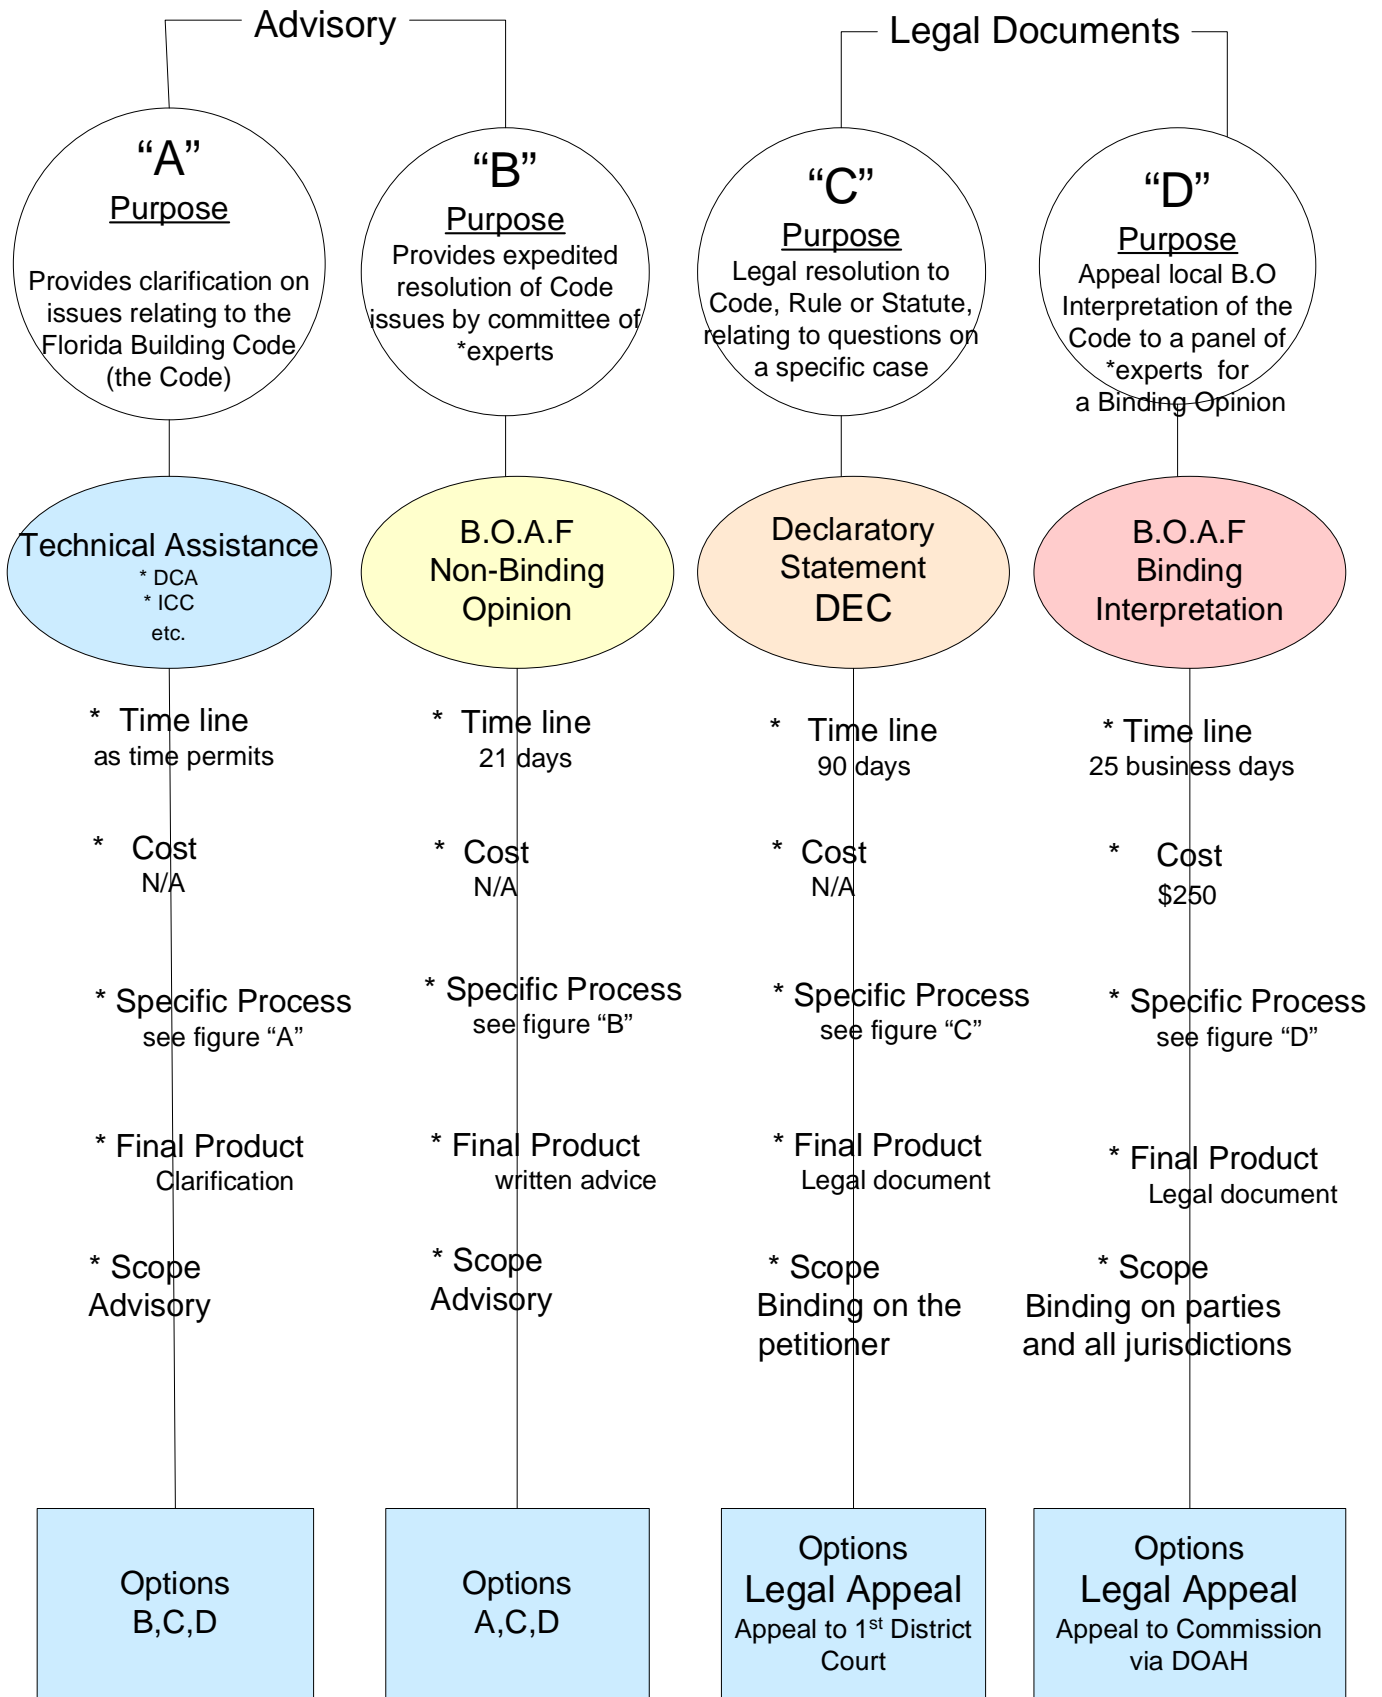

KEY

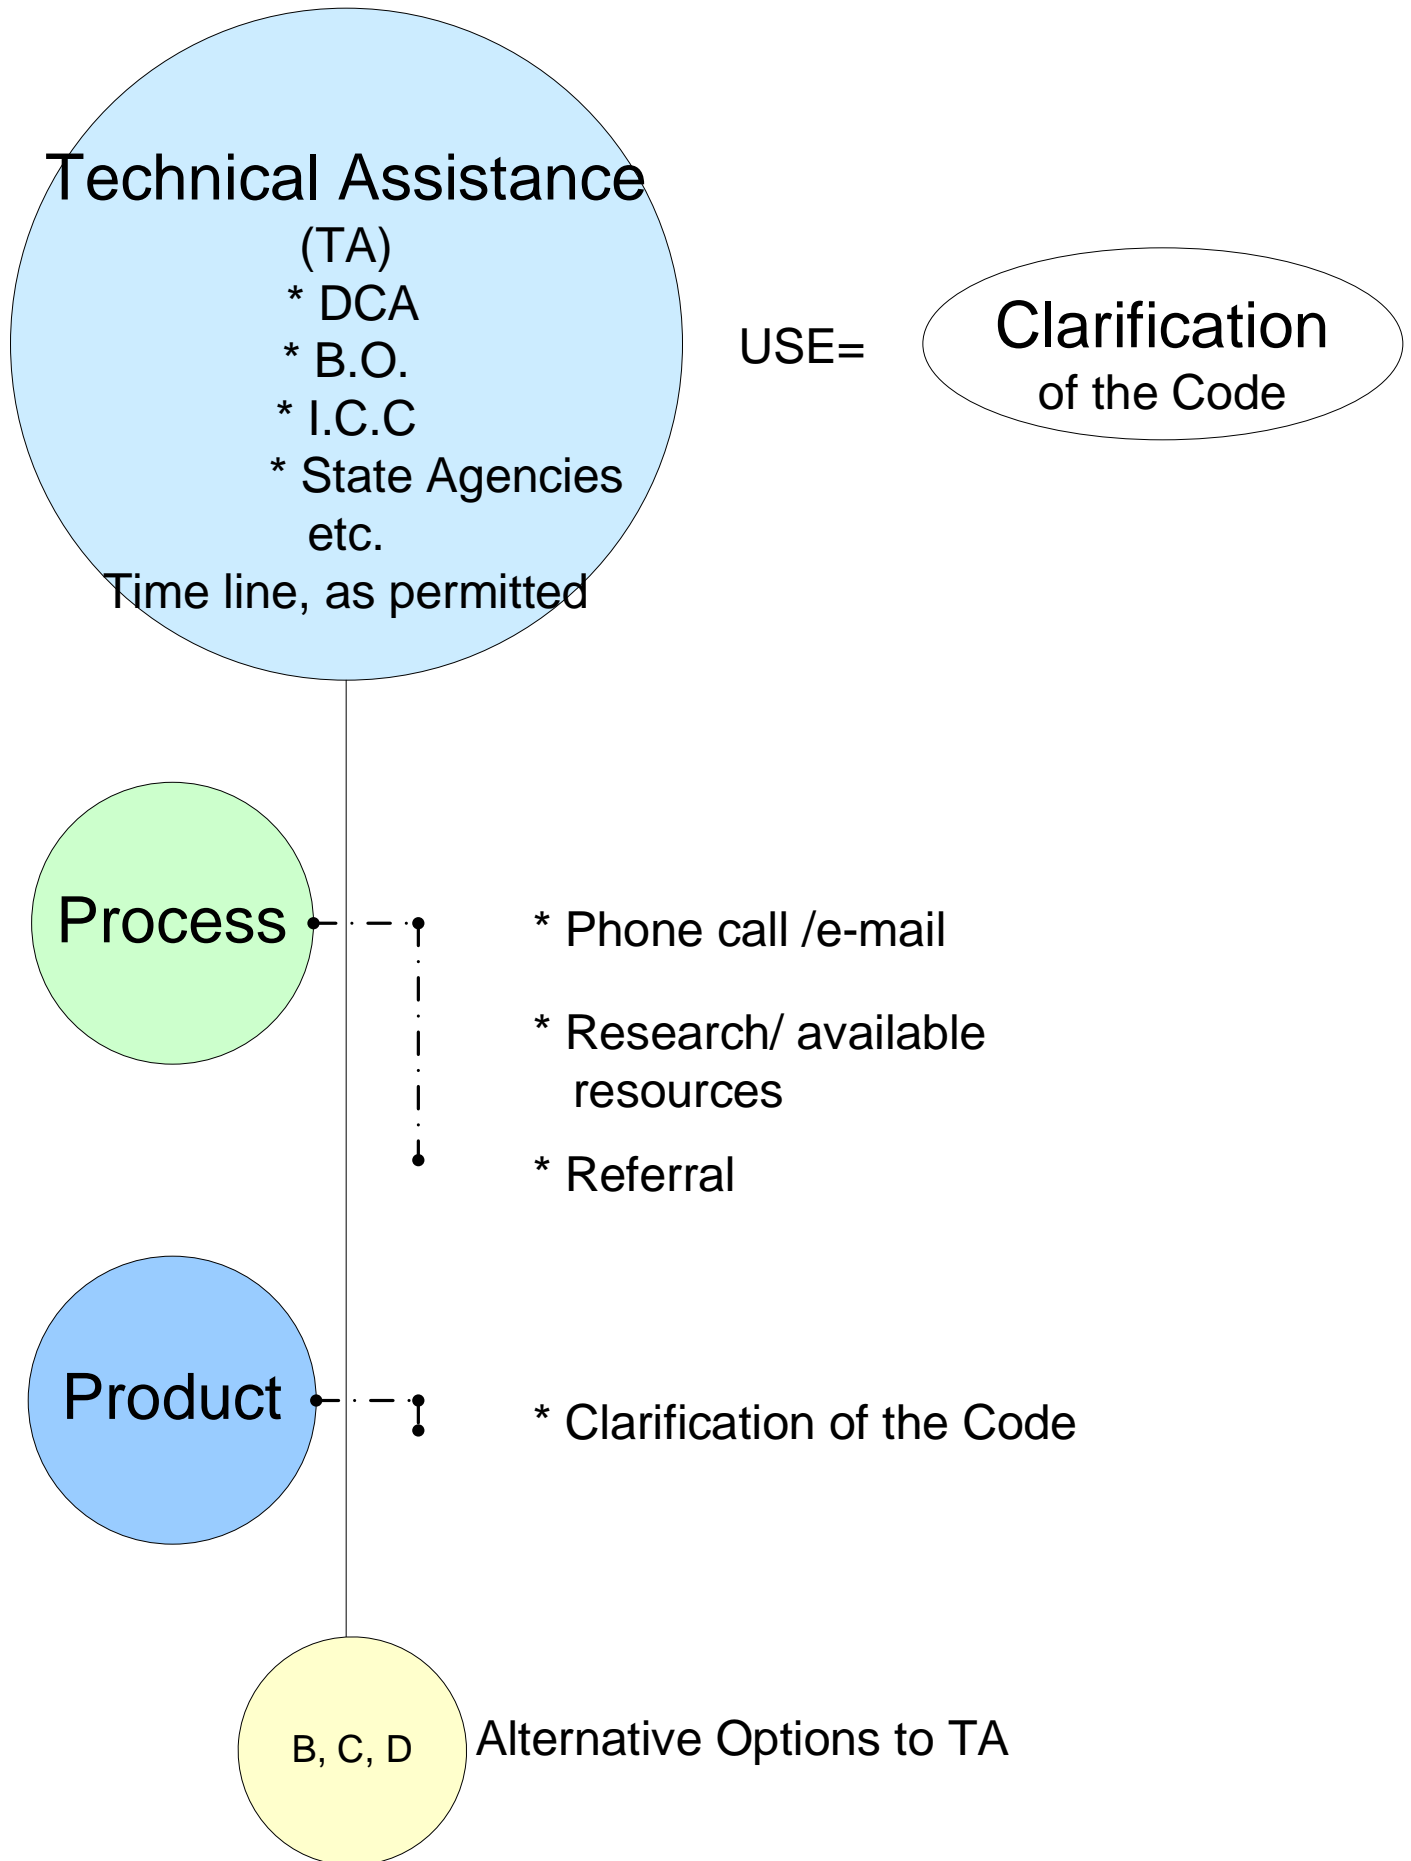

- Florida Building Commission (FBC, the Commission)
- Florida Building Code (the Code)
- Building Official (B.O.)
- Department of Community Affairs (DCA)
- International Code Council (ICC)
- Declaratory Statement (DEC)
- Building Official's Association of Florida (BOAF)
- Technical Advisory Committee (TAC)
- Technical Assistance (TA)
- Florida Administrative Weekly (FAW)
- Department of Administrative Hearing (DOAH)

Note: Licensing facilities and state agencies enforcing the Code may be subject to an alternative process

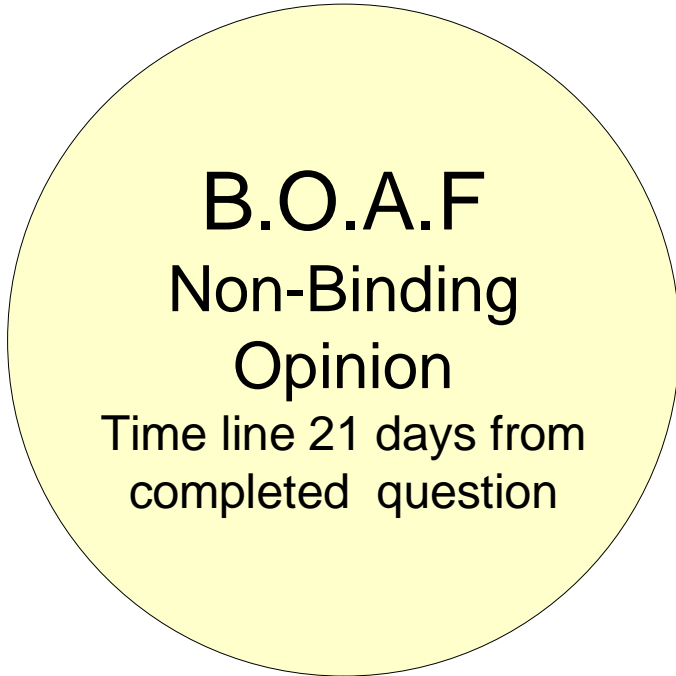

Overview of Code Resolution process

Path to Resolution "A"

Advisory Path to Resolution "B"

USE=

- * Answer to question
- * Library of Opinions

See Florida Statute 553.775 (3) (g) (hotlink)

* Question: www.floridabuilding.org

- Provide question to BOAF online form
- Provide Code Volume
- Provide Chapter and Section in Code
- BOAF queries experts for answer
- Question and answer posted on site

- * Research to resolution
- * Advisory Non- Binding Opinion

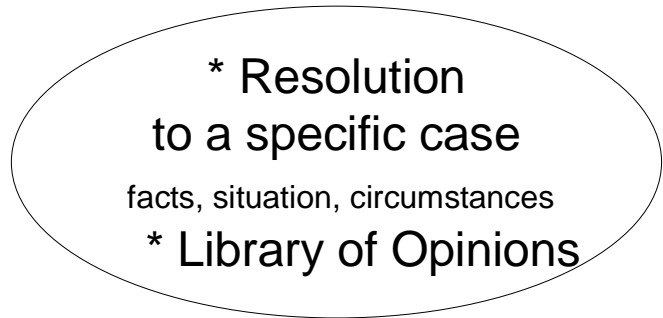

Alternative to Option B

Appeal process

Path to Resolution "C"

USE=

See Florida Statute 553.775 (3) (a) (hotlink) —
Chapter 120 (hotlink)

- * Notices petitions in FAW
- * Request petition to Commission
- * 1st Reading of petition, TAC considers, Commission takes action & posted on the web site for comment
- * Notice for 2nd Reading, next Commission meeting, Commission affirms or amends

- * Final order to petitioner

- * Appeal: 30 days, Chap 120 F.S.

Alternate options to "C"

Appeal process

Path to Resolution "D"

Binding Interpretation

Time line
approx. 25 days

from completed petition

USE=

- * Resolve conflict with B.O.
- * Library of Binding Opinions

See Florida Statute 553.775 (3) (c) (hotlink)

B.O.A.F Process

- * After local Board of Appeal, if exists
- * Petitioner completes online form and provides copy to B.O.
- * B.O responds to petition within 5 days
- * BOAF reviews petition determining completeness
- * Public has 7 days to comment on petitioner's issue
- * Building Code Administrators panel acts on petition and files Binding Opinion

Product

- * Interpretation shall be posted on line and noticed in the FAW

Appeal

- * Within 30 days of issuance of Final Order per Chap. 120 F.S

None

Alternative to option "D"