10 Be It Enacted by the Legislature of the State of Florida:

11

12 Section 1. Paragraph (a) of subsection (1) and subsection
 13 (2) of section 553.79, Florida Statutes, are amended to read:

14 553.79 Permits; applications; issuance; inspections.—

15 (1)(a) After the effective date of the Florida Building
 16 Code adopted as herein provided, it is ~~shall be~~ unlawful for any 17 person, firm, corporation, or governmental entity to construct, 18 erect, alter, modify, repair, or demolish any building within 19 the ~~this~~ state without first obtaining a permit therefor from 20 the appropriate enforcing agency or from such persons as may, by 21 appropriate resolution or regulation of the authorized state or 22 local enforcing agency, be delegated authority to issue such 23 permits, upon the payment of such reasonable fees adopted by the 24 enforcing agency. The enforcing agency is empowered to revoke 25 any such permit upon a determination by the agency that the

26 construction, erection, alteration, modification, repair, or 27 demolition of the building for which the permit was issued is in 28 violation of, or does not conform ~~not in conformity~~ with, the 29 ~~provisions of the~~ Florida Building Code. If ~~Whenever~~ a permit 30 required under this section is denied or revoked because the 31 plan, or the construction, erection, alteration, modification,
32 repair, or demolition of a building, is found by the local 33 enforcing agency to not comply ~~be not in compliance~~ with the 34 Florida Building Code, the local enforcing agency shall identify 35 the specific plan or project features that do not comply with 36 the applicable codes, identify the specific code chapters and 37 sections upon which the finding is based, and provide this 38 information to the permit applicant. A plans reviewer, local ~~or~~ 39 building code administrator or inspector, or firesafety marshal
40 or inspector who is responsible for issuing a denial, 41 revocation, or modification request but fails to provide to the 42 permit applicant a reason for denying, revoking, or requesting a
43 modification, based on compliance with the Florida Building
44 Code, the Florida Fire Prevention Code and the Life Safety Code, 45 or local ordinance, is subject to disciplinary action against 46 his or her license pursuant to s. 468.621(1)(i). Installation,
47 replacement, removal, or metering of any load management control
48 device is exempt from and is ~~shall~~ not ~~be~~ subject to the permit
49 process and fees otherwise required by this section.

50 (2) (a) Except as provided in subsection (8), an enforcing

51 agency may not issue any permit for construction, erection,
52 alteration, modification, repair, or demolition of any building
53 or structure until the local building code administrator or 54 inspector has reviewed the plans and specifications required by 55 the Florida Building Code, or local amendment thereto, for such 56 proposal and found that the plans comply ~~to be in compliance~~
57 with the Florida Building Code. If the local building code
58 administrator or inspector finds that the plans do not comply
59 ~~are not in compliance~~ with the Florida Building Code, the local 60 building code administrator or inspector shall identify the 61 specific plan features that do not comply with the applicable
62 codes, identify the specific code chapters and sections upon 63 which the finding is based, and provide this information to the 64 local enforcing agency. The local enforcing agency shall provide 65 this information to the permit applicant.

66 (b) ~~In addition,~~ An enforcing agency may not issue any 67 permit for construction, erection, alteration, modification,
68 repair, or demolition of any building or structure until the 69 appropriate firesafety marshal or inspector certified under 70 ~~pursuant to~~ s. 633.216 has reviewed the plans and specifications
71 required by the Florida Building Code, or local amendment
72 thereto, for such proposal and found that the plans comply with 73 the Florida Fire Prevention Code and the Life Safety Code. If a 74 firesafety marshal or inspector is required to approve the plans 75 of a commercial building or structure, and such plans have

76 already been approved and sealed by the local building
 77 department, the local building code administrator or inspector
 78 and the firesafety marshal or inspector do not have the 79 discretionary authority to change the plans. Any building or 80 structure that ~~which~~ is not subject to a firesafety code is 81 ~~shall~~ not ~~be~~ required to have its plans reviewed by the 82 firesafety marshal or inspector. If a firesafety marshal or 83 inspector is not required to approve the plans of a commercial
 84 or residential building or structure, and such plans have
 85 already been approved and sealed by the local building
 86 department, the local building code administrator or inspector
 87 does not have the discretionary authority to change the plans.
 88 Any building or structure that is exempt from the local building
 89 permit process may not be required to have its plans reviewed by 90 the local building code administrator or inspector.

91 (c) Industrial construction on sites where design,
 92 construction, and firesafety are supervised by appropriate
 93 design and inspection professionals and which contain adequate
 94 in-house fire departments and rescue squads is exempt, subject
 95 to local government option, from review of plans and 96 inspections, providing owners certify that applicable codes and 97 standards have been met and supply appropriate approved drawings
 98 to local building code administrators or inspectors and 99 firesafety marshals or inspectors.

100 (d) The enforcing agency shall issue a permit to
