ACKNOWLEDGMENT

The undersigned officer of Davinci Design Windows, LLC, being authorized to bind the company, hereby acknowledges and certifies with respect to the product identified above, in support of the certifications required under Rule 61G20-3.009, F.A.C., as follows:

1. Davinci Design Windows, LLC does not own, operate, or control, and has no financial interest in, Blackwater Testing srl, the approved testing laboratory that performed the testing referenced above.
2. Davinci Design Windows, LLC does not own, operate, or control, and has no financial interest in, Qrown Engineering or Quincy Brown, P.E., the manufacturer's licensed design professional for this application.
3. Davinci Design Windows, LLC does not own, operate, or control, and has no financial interest in, the quality assurance entity or the validation entity engaged for this product application.
4. Davinci Design Windows, LLC has not offered, and will not offer, any inducement or consideration to the testing laboratory, the licensed design professional, the quality assurance entity, or the validation entity that would compromise the independence of their work.
5. Davinci Design Windows, LLC is the manufacturer of the product identified above and confirms that the product is manufactured under a quality assurance program audited by a Commission-approved quality assurance entity at intervals not exceeding twelve (12) months, as required by Rule 61G20-3.005(3), F.A.C.
6. Davinci Design Windows, LLC confirms that the specimens tested under Report No. BW-DAV-26-001 are representative of the product it manufactures and distributes, and that it accepts the limitations of use accompanying this application, including the restriction of the product to overhang-protected openings.

7. Davinci Design Windows, LLC will notify the Florida Building Commission of any change to the product that decreases its performance, and when the quality assurance requirements of Rule 61G20-3.005(3), F.A.C., are no longer in place.

This acknowledgment is executed by an officer authorized to bind the company and is submitted in support of the Florida Product Approval application identified above.
